

LA JOLLA VILLAGE NEWS

READERS CHOICE AWARDS BEST RESTAURANTS

2024

La Jolla's Top Picks of 2024

As a coastal community that welcomes visitors from around the world, La Jolla continues to balance its international reputation with a deep sense of neighborhood charm. Once an artists' colony, today it remains a place where both family-run favorites and nationally recognized establishments thrive side by side.

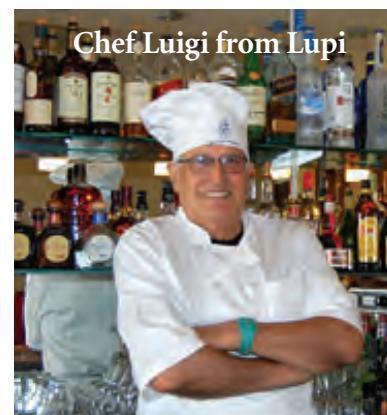

La Jollans are fortunate to enjoy world-class arts, culture, and—of course—dining. From fine dining destinations to local landmarks with loyal followings, the village offers some of the most memorable meals in San Diego and beyond. Dining here is not just about food—it's about experience, atmosphere, and community.

This year, the La Jolla Village News Readers Choice Awards honor the restaurants and eateries that stood out to our readers in 2025. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who cast their votes and helped us shine a spotlight on La Jolla's best.

Marisi

Marisi brings Italy to La Jolla with a focus on hearth cooking, handmade pastas, and fine wine. The menu celebrates regional Italian traditions, featuring dry-aged fish, whole animal butchery, little-known pasta shapes, and house-made Limoncello. Every dish reflects time-honored methods and fresh ingredients, paired with classic cocktails and heartfelt service. Once a dream, now a reality, Marisi offers an authentic dining experience that's both memorable and welcoming.

Bistro Du Marché

Since 2015, Bistro du Marché by Tapenade, is a multi awards recipient French classic bistro named in honor of the closed by Sunday Open Aire Market of La Jolla. This year the multiplication of awards includes San Diego Magazine Best French Critic's choice, Ranch and Coast Best Maitre'D by Hadrien Paquet. Under the leadership of Chef Jean-Michel Diot whose motto is "To learn this profession, one must be receptive to what nature offers us, master its techniques, and have a willingness to share knowledge with one another. Technique is reflected in gestures which can be repetitive, adapted to recipes, or acquired skills." Executive Cheffe Amélie Gadoum, who perfectly follows Diot's motto. The cuisine is mostly composed of selected fresh, and local Californian ingredients blended with traditional French techniques and flavors. The comfortable and relaxed atmosphere of the dining room, the bar and the patio, combined with a lively ambiance, deliver an elegant setting from the turn of the century Parisian bistros. Additionally a Sunday Morning French Breakfast Service from 9 to 12:30 pm lead by Step inside Michele Coulon Dessertier and you're met with desserts that feel more like works of art than simple sweets. Using the best Belgian chocolate, real butter, and fresh organic produce, every bite is rich, balanced, and unforgettable. From elegant wedding cakes to jewel-like pastries and savory creations, their philosophy is simple: food should be as beautiful as it is delicious. A true La Jolla gem for those who savor indulgence done right.

When's the last time you had a custom-made taco? Usually, those things are one-and-done, with a particular size fitting all. Not here — here, you can pretty much make your own stuff, with (almost) all the guacamole you can stand. You can do the same thing in downtown Encinitas. Or you could go on a run between the three and see which is better. Chances are the quality's set at the same high standard.

For over 38 years, Froglander's has been a La Jolla favorite for frozen yogurt and more. Guests can build their own Froyo creations, dive into acai bowls, or enjoy classics like banana splits. Known also for its authentic French crepes—sweet, savory, gluten-free, or vegan—Froglander's offers something for everyone. With rotating flavors, organic coffee, and endless combinations, every visit brings a new treat.
